

Visiting Mayfair Office

Finding Mayfair Office couldn't be easier. Situated just off Wigmore Street it is only a couple of minutes' walk from Oxford Street.

Travelling By Train/Underground

For many the quickest way to the office will be a combination of main line train and tube. The closest underground station, Bond Street (Central and Jubilee lines) is only five minutes' walk away and gives easy connections to Victoria, Waterloo, Euston, St. Pancras and Kings Cross main line termini. This really is the best way to travel.

Travelling By Car

The sheer amount of traffic in London nowadays makes travelling into the capital by car tedious and frustrating. It is also extremely expensive to park - if you can find a space! Plus there is the congestion charge. If you do want to use the car however, there are a number of NCP car parks nearby.
